European day

Europe is a continent with a rich history, from ancient Greece and Rome to modern times. After many wars, countries decided to unite for peace and progress. In 1950, six nations formed an economic alliance that later became the EU. Today, Europe is known for its culture, history and strong cooperation.

HAPPY EUROPE DAY!

European day

And... How do we celebrate it at the school?

1st of ESO

The students from 1st of ESO have written a letter to Europe to express their thoughts about the continent. In their letters, they talk about European culture, values, and what Europe means to them.

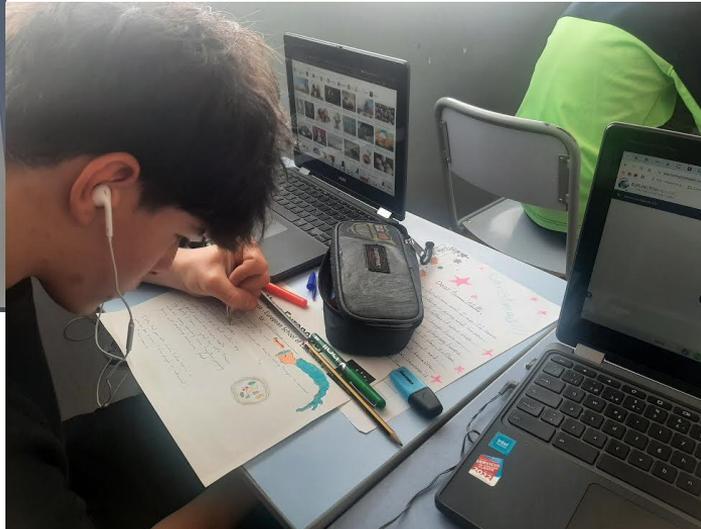

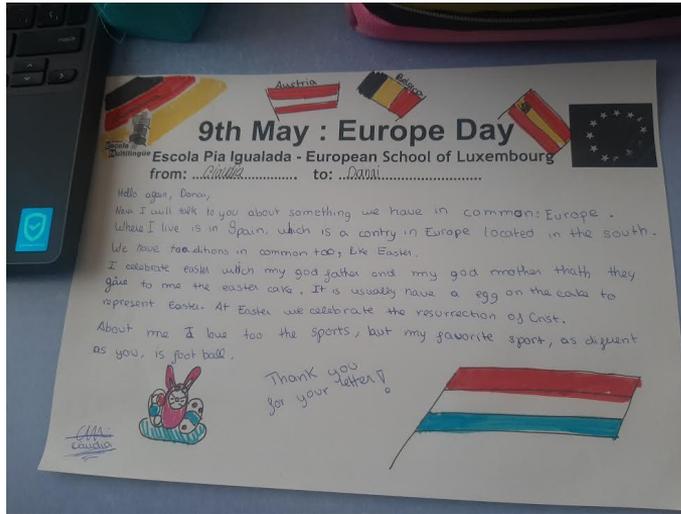

2nd of ESO

The students from 2nd of ESO exchanged letters with penpal friends in Luxembourg. They introduced themselves, shared European culture, and personal interests. This activity helped them practice English and learn about other European countries

2nd of ESO project:

3rd of ESO

The students from 3rd of ESO have created a PowerPoint about Europe, a Europe Wall with key facts, and video interviews. Through these activities, they have learned more about European culture, history, and diversity while practicing their English skills.

3rd of ESO video interviews

4th of ESO

The students from 4th of ESO will do a simulation of the European Parliament debating about topics and issues that teenagers are interested

GOOD MORNING!
